REMARKS

On 6/14/2016 at 2135hrs, I Ofc. Sanford, was performing patrol when I observed a red Chevy Cavalier bearing CT reg "5AUNK4" traveling Eastbound on Westfield Street. The vehicle continued on Newfield Street and came up behind another motor vehicle. The cavalier switched into the right hand lane to pass the other vehicle, again failing to signal for the lane change. Upon passing the other vehicle, the Cavalier returned to the original lane of travel, again without signalling. I initiated a MV stop on the Cavalier at the intersection of Newfield Street and Liberty Street.

I asked Chinatti if there was anything illegal in the vehicle to which he responded "no". I asked Chinatti if anyone had smoked marijuana in the vehicle which may have produced the odor, to which he replied "yes". I again asked Chinatti if there was anything illegal in the vehicle, and he stated there was marijuana in a backpack in the back seat. Chinatti immediately stated there was more than a 1/2 ounce of marijuana in his bag.

Ofc. DelMauro arrived on scene and while asking Chinatti to step out of the vehicle, he stated he had a small amount of "acid" in his wallet. A search of the vehicle resulted in the discovery of .965oz marijuana, 3 packs of "dutch master" blunt wraps, a wrapped marijuana cigar, a purple metal grinder, and a small piece of paper wrapped in tin foil that Chinatti identified as LSD.

Chinatti was placed in handcuffs and transported to Middletown Police Headquarters. Det. Peck advised Chinatti of his rights, which he stated he understood. The rights form was signed by Chinatti.

After being advised of rights and signing the form, Chinatti was asked why his marijuana was packaged in separate baggies. Chinatti responded, "Because I'm a drug dealer."

Det. Lathrop asked Chinatti if he sells drugs in Middletown and Chinatti stated that he did. When asked who he sells drugs to, Chinatti stated, "Lots of people." Det. Lathrop asked if he had sold drug to 10 people and Chinatti responded, "More than that." Det. Lathrop then asked Chinatti why he sold drugs and Chinatti responded, "So I can smoke for free."

The amount of marijuana in Chinatti's possession was more than a typical user would have at one time, in conjunction with the fact the marijuana was packaged in multiple baggies indicated that Chinatti was actively selling marijuana. In addition, throughout the booking process Chinatti's cellular phone continued to generate text messages.

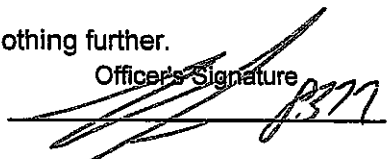

The green leafy substance tested positive as marijuana, and the piece of paper wrapped in tin foil tested positive as LSD.

Chinatti was processed for the charges of 21a-279(c) - Possession of >1/2oz marijuana, 21a-277(c) - Possession with intent to sell, 21a-267(d)(1) - Possession of drug paraphernalia, and 21a-279(c) - Possession of a hallucinogen. Chinatti received a verbal warning for the motor vehicle violations. Chinatti received a verbal warning for the motor vehicle violations.

Chinatti was held on a $25,000 surety bond with a court date of 6/15/2016 0900hrs at Middletown Superior Court. Chinatti's phone, $50 cash, the marijuana, LSD, and paraphernalia were submitted to evidence. Chinatti's vehicle was towed by Untouchable Towing to their establishment.

On 6-14-16 at 1022 hours, I observed Mr. Lamoureux operating CT registration 304-PJY, a green 1997 Subaru Legacy station wagon, N/B on Millbrook Rd at Old Johnson Ln. He was traveling well over the posted speed limit. As I am a Laser instructor, I estimated the speed to be approximately 50 mph.

I stopped the vehicle on Millbrook Rd at Livingston Rd and approached it on the driver's side. I asked the operator and sole occupant of the vehicle, Mr. Lamoureux, for his license, registration, and insurance card. As he was looking for these requested items, due to my training and experience, I could smell the odor of marijuana emanating from the vehicle. Mr. Lamoureux handed me the requested items and I responded back to my vehicle. All of the documents were valid.

I responded back to his vehicle and had him step to the rear of the vehicle. I explained that I could smell the odor of marijuana emanating from the vehicle. He stated that he had a "bong" in a red backpack on the passenger seat floor.

I entered the vehicle from the drivers side and located the red backpack. I opened it and located a large yellow glass "bong". Also inside of the bag was a small box with a clear plastic bag in it. I removed this and located a small plastic cup of what I immediately recognized as mushrooms. I seized this and the pipe as evidence. No other illegal items were located.

I placed Mr. Lamoureux under arrest. He was transported to HOQ and processed on the charges of Possession of Narcotics and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. He was released on a $5,000.00 non-surety bond with a court date of 6-29-16 in GA 9. His vehicle was parked and secured on Millbrook Rd to be recovered later. He was issued a Written Warning for Traveling Fast.

At HQ, the mushrooms had a TAW of 3.89 grams. These and the "bong" were placed into property as evidence.

REMARKS

On 6-8-16 at 1510 hours, Officer Vinci, Lt. DeSena, and I were dispatched to 340 Main St, the MAT Bus Terminal, for an older W/M intoxicated, screaming, and refusing to leave.

Upon arrival on the scene, I spoke with the complainant. He pointed out the suspect, now sleeping and intoxicated in a chair. He stated that the suspect, James Reynolds, had come into the terminal heavily intoxicated. The complainant asked him to leave multiple times but Reynolds just kept screaming "Fuck You! Do you know who I am?!" and refused to leave. That was when he called the police. There were numerous other people in the terminal, and multiple small children that observed this incident and who were visibly upset by it.

I have personally instructed Reynolds not to be on the property at the MAT Terminal numerous times in the past at the behest of the managers there and he has been arrested for this.

Due to his level of intoxication, he was unable to walk, he was transported to Middlesex Hospital via Hunter's Ambulance for treatment. There, he was released to the hospital on an MSC for Breach of Peace 2nd and Criminal Trespass 1st with a court date of 6-29-16 in GA 9. He was again instructed not to return to the MAT Terminal.
